

Expenses have been minimal this year due to no AGM costs or activities needing funding.
Postage costs of journal increased due to covid restrictions as none were hand delivered. Norfolk & Norwich
Postal service thanked for sending out journals at reduced rate.

Seniors still benefit from Christmas gifts.

League donated £100 to N&N Nurse who sadly died from covid.

Ann Copsey received £223.75 in Gift Aid from members.

Our investments of £15,000 are a bit less due to covid and world market but continue to be monitored by our Financial Advisor Chris Rengert.

Our income exceeds expenditure, and there are enough funds to cover all events we have planned.

Membership Secretary Report. Ann Copsey

Membership stands at 329. We have some new members, but sadly have lost some members since the publication of the journal.

Thanks to those members who pay their subscriptions in April, this keeps postal costs to a minimum.
Thankyou members who donated enabling us to keep subscriptions at the same level.

The Log in and user name for the website:

User name: league2022

Password: happy-cat

Web site Report Mary Dolding

The web site continues to be a success, thanks to Dr (Paddy) Pdraig O'Lunaigh for his support and guidance in managing the site.

Members may also pay annual subscriptions and make donations on line.

The annual Betty Lee Lecture was accessed by over a hundred people. The virtual presentation was given by Richard England Paediatric Surgeon, who has also become our heritage advisor.

Joint Journal Editors Sondra Gorick Chris Parfitt

Thanks to everyone who submitted material.

Thanks to Vince at S.R.Print & Design for the layout and printing

Email address to contact or send articles to; nursesleaguenandn@gmail.com

Heritage Report. Margaret Allcock

Appointments to collect photographs and memorabilia have been postponed due to covid lockdown.

Photographs on glass slides of the old N&N have been donated by Jessica Woodhouse.

The restoration fund for the Jenny Lind Long Case Clock continues to make progress.

The Heritage committee continues to produce material for the display cabinet at the NNUH. Topics displayed have been the 200year Anniversary of Florence Nightingale, and the 200year Anniversary of Jenny Lind. The present display marks the 250th Anniversary of the original Norfolk and Norwich Hospital built in 1771.

AOB

None reported

The Betty Lee lecture will go ahead Oct 7th 2021

92nd AGM Reunion Sat 14th May 2022 1.45pm

MJ - fdh

14:05:22